

Photos > Art installation protests against abuse scandals in Cologne

Art installation protests against abuse scandals in Cologne

🕒 4 August 2023

A view of children mannequins wrapped in purple and white barricade tape placed in front of the Cologne Cathedral, installed there by German artist Dennis Josef Meseg, called "Shattered Souls – in a Sea of Silence", to protest against the abuse scandals in the Catholic Church in Cologne, Germany August 3, 2023.

SOURCE: REUTERS/Wolfgang Rattay

MORE PHOTOS

FIFA Women's World Cup Australia and New Zealand 2023 – Fan Festival

A firefighting helicopter fills up water from the Kouris reservoir near the village of Alassa

The full moon shines behind power lines outside Nicosia

Greek PM in official state visit in Cyprus

In-Cyprus App

Download the app to your phone to stay up to date with all the latest developments with the reliable reporting of the Phileleftheros Media Group.

Group.

Follow us

Minute by minute news from Cyprus and the world on the social media pages of in-cyprus.

Newsletter

Subscribe to in-cyprus newsletter for all the main news of the day

*Email

Subscribe to Newsletter

Useful Links

- About us
- Contact us
- Privacy & Cookie Policy
- Sitemap
- Looking for your new career?
- Looking for your dream house?